

Raise the Curtain Event Report

The first event held by the English Press Club during Blitzschlag'23 was "Raise the Curtain". It was an online event accepting entries till the 12th of February. The rules of the event required the participants to share an amusing/inspirational/hilarious incident from their life in the form of a report. However, the report had to be from the viewpoint of a journalist maintaining neutrality in the situation. We received about 10 entries judged by the Club Secretaries. The top 3 winners were announced through our Instagram handle and were awarded certificates and prize vouchers.

Seek the Truth Event Report

The second event conducted by the English Press Club during Blitzschlag'23 was "Seek the Truth". It was held on February 12th, 2023 in VLTC. There were around 120 participants. A pair of recent news pieces were selected from a variety of categories such as Entertainment, Technology, Sports, Environment, Current Affairs, etc., and presented to the teams. Then the team which pressed the buzzer first had to identify which news was authentic and which news was made up. Around 30 teams participated in the event going through 4 elimination rounds and 1 final round. The top 3 winning teams were awarded certificates and prize vouchers worth up to Rs 3000.
