

Electoral Literacy Club, CACS, Deanery of Student Welfare

A report of the Preamble Reading Activity organized on the occasion of Constitution Day, 26th November 2023

November 26 is celebrated as Constitution Day (Samvidhan Divas). A Preamble Reading activity was organized on 26th of November 2023, at the VLTC Parking Side Porch Area at 10 am by the Electoral Literacy Club where participants, including students and faculty members, gathered to collectively read the Preamble to the Constitution of India. The primary objective of the program was to educate and raise awareness among students and other participants about the Preamble. It explains the objectives of the Constitution in two ways which are, about the structure of the governance and about the ideals to be achieved in independent India.

The Preamble to the Constitution reflects the core constitutional values that embody the Constitution. It declares India to be a Sovereign, Socialist, Secular, and Democratic Republic committed to Justice, Equality and Liberty for the people.

The program saw active participation from the students. A large number of students participated in the activity and read the preamble.

The Preamble reading is a valuable initiative and is successfully celebrated by emphasizing the constitutional values that bind our diverse nation together. We believe that such events play a crucial role in fostering a sense of national identity and unity. Dr Nidhi Bansal and Dr Reeta Singh, Faculty Advisors of the Electoral Literacy Club thanked the students for their participation on behalf of the Institute.
