

Report on Digital Content Creating Competition (04-03-2024)

The Mavericks, under the Creative Arts and Cultural Society (CACS), recently orchestrated a Digital Content Creating Competition to engage youth and foster awareness regarding the significance of voting. The competition encouraged participants to showcase their creativity through reels, blogs, podcasts, and graphics, all revolving around the themes of "Mera Pehla Vote Desh Ke Liye," "Chunav Ka Parv, Desh Ka Garv," and "My Vote, My Duty." Its primary objective was to enlighten the youth about the importance of their vote in shaping the future of the nation. The initiative aimed to reach a wide audience and encourage active participation among young individuals.

The event took place on Monday, 4th March, affording participants ample time to create and submit their entries exclusively through Google Forms, ensuring a streamlined and efficient submission process. The competition garnered significant interest among youth across various demographics, with participants enthusiastically embracing the opportunity to express their thoughts and creativity on the importance of voting.

The entries received are vivid and at the same time impressive to observe, which demonstrates the understanding of participants on the importance of their vote.

In conclusion, the Digital Content Creating Competition stands as a testament to the potential of youth engagement in shaping the future of the nation. Through creativity, innovation, and civic responsibility, the participants have demonstrated their commitment to democracy and their role as active citizens in building a brighter tomorrow.
